

Introduction

The aim of creating an International Jumping Owners' Club is to provide a long awaited service to the owners of horses participating at international jumping events.

To avail of this service, owners must be affiliated members of the club.

There are two kinds of memberships: active and passive.

Membership fees

An active member's annual fee amounts to CHF 1'000.-.

A passive member's annual fee amounts to CHF 250.-.

FEI International Owner's Award

An annual award to be known as the "FEI International Owner's Award" will be presented to a club member on the occasion of the annual dinner. This award is open to both active and passive club members.

The rules for this award have been established by the FEI. The award is given to the owner of the best horse (based on the best horse and rider combination established by the FEI World Jumping Riders' Ranking List) provided that the horse is under the same ownership for the entire calendar year.

Subscriptions to Publications

All members will receive a free subscription to the publication "Horse International" as well as the FEI Press News.

Active membership

At a cost in addition to the membership fee, active members may avail of the following hospitality and services at international events where their horse participates.
